Art

The National Theatre's acclaimed production returns in an all-new UK tour. War Horse is an unforgettable theatrical experience which takes audiences on an extraordinary journey from the fields of rural Devon to the trenches of First World War France. Based on the beloved novel by Michael Morpurgo, this powerfully moving and imaginative drama, filled with stirring music and songs, is a show of phenomenal inventiveness. At its heart are astonishing life-sized horses by South Africa's Handspring Puppet Company, who bring breathing, galloping, charging horses to thrilling life on stage. Each of the puppeteers has one "emotional indicator" for which they're responsible: the puppeteer at the head uses bicycle brake levers to rotate and move ears to indicate when the horse is afraid, agitated or angry; the puppeteer at the heart bends their knees to move the horse's body up and down to suggest breath.
