Headmaster's Message

Visitors to the school this week will have noticed a number of works of art relating to Remembrance Day. Pupils in Art lessons have been studying 'Community Art' and have produced – many in their own time - two pieces using the poppy theme and echoing the 'river of poppies' displayed one year at Windsor Castle. Thank you to Miss Henes and the pupils for providing such thoughtful works at this time of the year. Y8 pupil Liliana P produced a wonderful Banksy-style 'Grasping Peace' painting that summed up the fragility of the situation now. School remembered the loss and sacrifice of conflict at the Cenotaph. Now more than ever we need to focus on peace.

Year 11

Year 11s are beginning to send in their applications for Colleges and Sixth Forms. Mr Boswell takes great care in collating, advising, and checking the applications. It's great to see personal references full of ambition and support through extra-curricular activities and making full use of personal development opportunities. Allied to encouraging predicted grades, Year 11 should approach their final year with confidence knowing that hard work pays off in the end. We are commencing the National Citizenship Scheme so this is a great chance for pupils to sign up, build their CVs and develop their characters.

ACADEMIC NEWS

ASSESSMENT

At North Cestrian the purpose of assessments is to ensure pupils understand what they can do, and what they need to do to improve, rather than focus solely on target grades. We don't focus on target grades as we would rather pupils understood what they can do and need to do to improve. This, together with a growth mindset and hard work, is a recipe for success.

The research around using target grades is mixed and there is an increasing body of evidence around the use of cognitive science strategies that improve learning skills and self-awareness that positively impact outcomes and motivation to achieve their best, irrespective of a target. There is also evidence that when students make their own target grades, even if they are too optimistic, they tend to work harder and achieve better grades. For more about the pros and cons of target grades, read this article - Target Grades: good or bad for student learning and performance?.

The school focus this year is to develop metacognitive skills. Metacognition is the extent to which an individual is aware of their thoughts and their ability to choose an effective thought process.

The school assessment calendar is now available here:

Some benefits to developing metacognitive skills include:

- Improving academic performance
- Reducing stress associated with exams
- Improving problem-solving skills

Therefore, encouraging metacognitive development can help students stay more motivated. To read more about this topic, see this blog.

ART NEWS

Studying the Creative Arts improves academic performance across all subjects.

Evidence shows that students who study the Creative Arts have improved overall academic performance through several key aspects.

Instilling Growth Mindset

Students develop their Cestrian Character through resilience in mastering a skill and improving by acting on feedback. Through demonstrating perseverance students develop intrinsic motivation to succeed in accomplishing learning a piece or creating an artwork.

Developing Cognitive Function

The Arts provide a link between the different subjects studied in school. They help to improve verbal memory, reading ability, executive functions, and foreign language fluency. In creating an artwork students participate in a multifaceted, complex endeavour that combines several subject areas — including science, language, history, and mathematics. In learning to play a musical instrument tunefully, understanding how sound waves work and mastering the principles of musical acoustics can be helpful. Through looking at the work of others, students must develop an understanding of the historical, cultural, and social events that were taking place at the time the work was created.

Manchester Art Fair

Set Design Club - Matilda

The manufacture and artwork to create the set for the school performance of Matilda is well underway. Students attending Art Club on Gold Mondays have the opportunity to work as part of a group to create parts of the set, as designs progress, they will also have opportunity to work individually to create their own artworks. Students should attend Art Club to find out how they can be involved so as not to spoil the surprise!

KS3 Art Club

Art Club have enjoyed mindfulness techniques through painting with colour inspired by the artwork of Josie Lewis and creating patterns using the technique of neurographic art. Some students have also been inspired by the work of Year Nine to create their own Remembrance Day artwork.

KS3 Music Curriculum

Our new Year 7's have had an amazing start to their musical journeys at North Cestrian! Pupils have been learning about the Elements of Music; learning how to read rhythm and pitch on the stave alongside learning how to play the piano/keyboard. Pupils have also been practicing their listening skills, with a focus on composer Ludwig van Beethoven. Pupils have learnt to play two pieces by Beethoven so far... 'Für Elise' and 'Ode to Joy' from Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, with an assessment of the latter taking place in the next three weeks. Years 8 & 9 have been building on their skills from Year 7, learning about Riffs & Chords in Popular Music, Music of Black Origin, the music of Disney, and James Bond!

Music Cultural Capital

Music, in its nature, is a very culturally-rich subject, and each lesson, pupils are exposed to music from a vast range of genres, cultures and eras. For pupils looking to further their cultural awareness of music, they can complete a task based on an "Influential Musician." The link to all "Influential Musician" slides - CLICK HERE

In this folder, pupils can find PowerPoint slides with listening tasks and the option to complete either a written reflection of the musician, or learn one of the pieces by the musician. Musicians in this folder range from Classical composers, such as Beethoven, Bach and Mozart, to Popular artists, such as Ed Sheeran, Billie Eilish, Freddie Mercury and Paul McCartney, to Film composers, such as John Williams and Hans Zimmer. All videos and/or written responses can be sent via email to Mr Wilson (a.wilson@northcestrian.co.uk).

VERONA TRIP 2023

11th-14th October 2023

Three year groups, all alike in dignity,

In fair Verona, where we laid our scene.

From Manchester Airport break to new territory,

Where the pasta was good, as was the ice cream.

Pupils from across year 9, 10 and 11 have just returned from the most wonderful trip to Italy. We embarked on the trip very early on Wednesday morning last week and boarded our flight to Verona, a city made famous by the setting of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet.

After a successful outbound flight, we arrived in Verona and had our first afternoon discovering this charming city. Pupils explored the area around the main Piazza Di Bra in the shadow of the remains of the spectacular Roman Amphitheatre.

Having shopped and eaten (focaccia, pasta, pizza, insalate caprese, gelato all featuring), feeling refreshed we went to visit the 'Arena' (amphitheatre). Walking into the vast, impressive structure had many gasping in awe at the scale of the ancient stadium. Mr Bailey gave us some of the history of the site and we marvelled at the thought of violent gladiator fights with savage beasts that would have taken place there. Pupils scaled the sweeping steps to take in the glorious views from the top in the golden evening light.

The following day we ventured back into central Verona using the very efficient local bus service. We enjoyed a fascinating tour of Verona's Teatro Stabile, which has seen many famous Italian actors tread the boards. We learned about the history of the building, the resident ghost and even had the opportunity to recite some Shakespeare on the stage. Our excellent guide, who was also an actor herself, gave some exceptional recitals from Romeo and Juliet on the terrace of the theatre which overlooked the famous balcony of Juliet. We then visited the house said to belong to the original family of Capulet where the real-life Juliet is said to have lived. We posed for pictures on the balcony and with the bronze statue of Juliet which occupies the pretty courtyard outside the house. We then walked across the city to take the funicular railway up the hillside for some spectacular views across Verona. We enjoyed a rest and took in the dramatic scenery from the viewing platform, before making our way back to the hotel.

The final day was a full itinerary comprising of a guided walking tour around Verona's sights, beginning at the Castelvecchio bridge. Much to our excitement, the bridge was being used as a film set so we were able to see it recreated in all its medieval glory, complete with extras milling around dressed in traditional costume. Jonny Depp and Robert De Niro were rumoured to be on set, so we were extremely keen to spy the Hollywood stars. Sadly, we did not manage any autographs, but did learn some interesting facts about the castle itself and walked on a real stretch of existing Roman road.

We then ventured to the train station and enjoyed a delightful train journey to Lake Garda. After a hot day's walking, we were blessed with the chance to swim and cool off in the lake. The waters were crystal clear, and we lounged on the beach in the warm sunshine; it really was a glorious way to spend an afternoon. We then took the train back to the city and had the pleasure of seeing the sights at night. The city was buzzing and vibrant, largely owing to the fact there was a local wine festival being held in various locations across the city. We walked to a restaurant which was in an old converted church and enjoyed our final meal together. Very weary after a long day exploring, we took a (somewhat delayed) bus back to the hotel for our final night's rest.

The next day, with heavy hearts, we bid farewell to Verona and travelled back to a typically cold and rainy Manchester. It was a truly excellent trip which will no doubt be remembered by our pupils for a long time. Their experiences of travel, culture, history and time spent with their friends is invaluable. Our pupils were exceptionally well-behaved and were a credit to the school throughout. We will certainly look forward to running the trip again in future!

KINDNESS CLUB

Kindness Club have chosen a Christmas appeal to support which is Wood Street Mission, a charity that collects Christmas gifts, selection boxes, books, wrapping paper and chocolate for children in Manchester and Salford who are struggling at Christmas. Kindness Club reps will hopefully be popping into forms and assemblies to advertise their collection and U8 can be a drop off for anyone who wants to bring in any items. The charity do ask for new items not old toys so as a group we were thinking maybe selection boxes and wrapping paper could be a cheaper alternative but we are happy to accept all toys too!
